

American Sign Language:

You have the right to an interpreter at no cost to you.

This person is seeking services in

By law, people seeking services from the State of Illinois have the right to free translation and interpretation services in their language of choice. If you are not sure how to help, please reference your agency's language access plan or ask your supervisor for assistance.